

Geography

Learn about features of coastlines (Sequence of learning about different coastal features)

Map work on local and national area of coast (atlas work)

Explore changes in the coastline (local museum visits)

Find out and make a leaflet about our local coastal areas

Sea Boat trip to explore our local coast (Coombe Martin/

Cooking

Weekly cooking sessions based around life skills cooking of both sweet and savoury dishes

History

Historical research of seaside resorts through the ages

Photographic evidence /research of changes in holidays for people

Science

Animal food webs and chains

Discover the complex world of coastal food chains and food webs.

Rockpool exploration to find out about different species of animals that live locally on our coastline

Use of ICT Skills to create own chains and webs based on off site research around chains and webs

Maths (Hamilton Trust)

Place Value larger numbers

Negative numbers

Counting in different formats :eg roman numerals

Timestables rockstars

My Maths

Beech Class Topic

Summer 1 Term

Coasts

ICT Discrete research around coastal topic on various websites Design and make an information booklet about our local coastline – Publisher?

Research around food chains and webs for science

Research around local coastal animals found on class trips out

LITERACY (Babcock teaching sequences)

Extreme animals

Create a non fiction book about a variety of animals, using language skills, research skills, design skills to make a book for a specific audience (Younger Class ?)

ART/DT Research and create coastal pictures from different artists , Art work around different coastal animals that can be found , Design a coastal map 3 d using collage/ clay to represent different coastal features

FOREST SCHOOL

Marland forest school forest plan

PSHE

Relationships , Exploring relationship webs, Love and loss, Power and control, Safety with technology